School Christmas Party

Yesterday, I went to the school Christmas party. In the morning, I went to a stationery shop and chose a desk calendar as a Christmas gift.

After that, I got on the school bus and chatted with my classmate, Sam. I put the gift on a seat next to me.

We arrived at school shortly. Everyone was so excited to show their gifts, but I couldn't find mine! I was so sad and hid in the corner. Suddenly, I remembered that my gift was on the seat of school bus.

Sam saw me crying, so he came to me and asked, 'What happened to you, Evan?' 'I forgot to bring the gift with me when I got off the bus, so I can't join the Christmas party now.' I replied. Sam then ran to get his school bag and took out a box. 'Evan, look at this!' I was so surprised because it was my gift.

Finally, we exchanged our gifts at the end of the party. I was really happy because Sam helped me and I enjoyed the party very much!
